Everyone needs a friend... Especially a friend you can trust with your secrets If ever Kim needed a friend, she needed one now. She just didnt expect the friend to be a boy. And never in a thousand years would she have expected it to be this boy . . . Jarrod, the school bully. Who would have thought such opposites would have anything in common? And who ever would have thought they would become best friends? Not Jarrod. And certainly not Kim. Little did they know the secrets each of them was hiding . . . or what changes would take place in their lives when they shared them. Friendship is a gift from God, but sometimes that gift comes wrapped in the unlikeliest of packages. That was true of Kims friendship with Jarrod. Kims Diary is about the pain of losing someone you love and the unexpected ways that God sometimes heals that pain.
