Falling in love with another woman was not a part of John Alexanders life plan. He was, after all a devoted husband to Mary, a wonderful father and a successful minister for more than three decades. But when Emily Richards walked into his church his heart melted. The years that followed would prove to be a battleground for John as he watched her grow into a beautiful woman whom he desired more than anything. Will he hold fast to his beliefs? Will he stay faithful to his marriage and to God? Or will he give in to his lust and finally have the woman he wants? Only time will tell if he can pass the ultimate test of faith.
