Bonnie, or Grandbon as she is known to her grandson Luke, is a mother of six, nurse practitioner, and health advocate who has enjoyed excellent health until April 2011 when the shocking diagnosis of Stage IV lung cancer was made. Thanks to family, friends, prayers, and modern medicine, she is now savoring progression free survival time. But no healing power has had more of an impact than 20-month-old Luke. And with more grandchildren on the way, Grandbon anticipates even more health benefits!
