Aunt Janes Nieces is the title of a juvenile novel first published in 1906, written by L. Frank Baum under the pseudonym Edith Van Dyne. Since the book was the first in a series of novels designed for adolescent girls, its title was applied to the entire series of ten books, published between 1906 and 1918. The book and the series were designed to appeal to the same audience as Louisa May Alcotts Little Women and Little Men. This was expressly stipulated in Baums contract with his publishers. The ten titles are: Aunt Janes Nieces (1906), Aunt Janes Nieces Abroad (1907), Aunt Janes Nieces at Millville (1908), Aunt Janes Nieces at Work (1909), Aunt Janes Nieces in Society (1910), Aunt Janes Nieces and Uncle John (1911), Aunt Janes Nieces on Vacation (1912), Aunt Janes Nieces on the Ranch (1913), Aunt Janes Nieces Out West (1914) and Aunt Janes Nieces in the Red Cross (1915).
